Brave, confident, adventurous—those born in the year of the Tiger live life boldly! Though they can be stubborn, boastful and unpredictable, Tigers are generally quite charming and well-liked, and can be powerful, effective leaders with their natural intelligence and ability to take on any challenge that comes their way. They seek action and competition, are friendly and gregarious, and tend to maintain a calm demeanor. But don't let their peaceful appearance fool you—Tigers will pounce when needed!

GUN HEI FAT CHOI

This year of the Tiger will be full of surprising developments. Rather than fearing these unforeseen changes, draw strength and inspiration from the Tiger's bravery and ability to always land on his feet! When faced with a new challenge, seek out the adventure in its solution, and remain calm but ready to pounce at the next positive opportunity. We at American Acupuncture Council are always here to help you calmly adapt to both sudden and long-term changes and challenges. Our proven malpractice insurance and broad range of support tools provide solid, trustworthy protection so you can bravely and boldly serve your clients, build your practice, and advance the acupuncture profession. May 2022 bring you an abundance of the Tiger's confidence and charisma!
